Human Trafficking

February 17, 2017 - 9:00 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.
CORA Conference Center

Presenters:

Pearl Kim, Chief of the Human Trafficking Unit and currently works as an Assistant District Attorney in the Office of the District Attorney, Delaware County, PA in the Special Victims and Domestic Violence Division. As a special victim's unit prosecutor, Ms. Kim handles Protection From Abuse matters, child physical and sexual abuse, domestic violence, rape, human trafficking, and Internet Crimes Against Children cases. In an effort to more effectively reach out to underrepresented communities, she was designated the Asian Outreach Liaison and has been cross deputized as a Special Assistant District Attorney in Montgomery County, PA.

Ms. Kim was appointed to serve on the Joint State Government Commission's Advisory Committee on Human Trafficking and to report back to the PA Senate any recommendations for changes in state law, policies, and procedures.

Ms. Kim obtained her J.D. from Villanova University School of Law where she was the recipient of the Villanova Achievement Scholarship, and received her B.A. from Bryn Mawr College. Recently, the American Bar Association awarded Ms. Kim the Norm Maleng Minister of Justice Award for her efforts in combating human trafficking in Pennsylvania, and the Pennsylvania Bar Association awarded her the Government Attorney of the Year award. She has spoken at several national conferences on issues relating to human trafficking and sexual violence.

Honorable Lori A. Dumas has been serving as a Common Pleas Court Judge in the Philadelphia Family Court, Juvenile Division. She is a graduate of Duke University and North Carolina Central University School of Law. She currently serves as an Officer of the Juvenile Court Judges' Commission and is a member of The National and International Councils of Juvenile and Family Court Judges.

Judge Dumas has been assigned to preside over many specialized court programs such as, School Violence, Graduated Sanctions, GPS, Juvenile Crossover Program, JDAI, Gang FFT, Human Trafficking and the Juvenile Gun Violence Task Force. She is an Officer of the Clifford Scott Green Chapter of the NBA Judicial Council, a graduate of the PA Juvenile Justice Academy and is a Georgetown University Juvenile Justice Fellow.

She is currently the Co-Chair of the Philadelphia Steering Committee Collaborative against Human Trafficking.

Judge Dumas also provides a Legal Education as a Guest Lecturer, Panelist and Instructor at several Forums and Colleges and Universities in the Philadelphia area.

Purpose: Human trafficking is a dramatic criminal activity on the rise throughout the world, whose presence locally in the Philadelphia region has only recently gained media attention. This workshop will present an overview of this complex issue, giving education and awareness regarding the issue of Human Trafficking in Pennsylvania. Special attention will be given to the need for a coordinated response across legal, mental health, and school agencies.

Objectives: As a result of this interactive workshop, participants will be able to:

- Learn key indicators of suspected human trafficking cases in schools
- Understand components of the necessary coordinated response to suspected trafficking cases, within the Philadelphia community
- Learn of available services for victims of human trafficking

Credits Offered:

- NBCC: 3.5
- Psychology Credits: 3.5
