Presenters:

Pearl Kim was recently appointed to the Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General as a Senior Deputy Attorney General. Kim serves in the Executive Office, Office of Public engagement and is tasked with leading the Campus Safety Initiative for the OAG. Formerly an Assistant District Attorney in the Delaware County District Attorney's Office, Ms. Kim was Chief of the Human Trafficking Unit in the Special Victims and Domestic Violence Division.

Ms. Kim served on the Joint State Government Commission's Advisory Committee on Human Trafficking and reported back to the PA Senate recommendations for changes in state law, policies, procedures and ultimately secured the first trafficking of persons conviction under Pennsylvania's trafficking statute.

Ms. Kim is on the Governor's Advisory Commission on Asian American Affairs and she currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Asian Pacific American Bar Association of Pennsylvania. The Legal Intelligencer has recognized Ms. Kim as one of the 2011 Lawyers on the Fast Track, as one of the 2011 Diverse Attorneys of the Year, and as one of the 2012 Women of the Year. The American Bar Association awarded Ms. Kim the Norm Maleng Minister of Justice Award for her efforts as a special victims prosecutor, and she was the recipient of the Government Attorney of the Year Award for her efforts as a special victims prosecutor, and she was the recipient of the Government Attorney of the Year Award by the Pennsylvania Bar Association in 2015. Ms. Kim obtained her J.D from Villanova University School of Law.

Honorable Lori A. Dumas has been serving as a Common Pleas Court Judge in the Philadelphia Family Court, Juvenile Division. She is a graduate of Duke University and North Carolina Central University School of Law. She currently serves as an Officer of the Juvenile Court Judges' Commission and is a member of The National and International Councils of Juvenile and Family Court Judges.

Judge Dumas has been assigned to preside over many specialized court programs such as, School Violence, Graduated Sanctions, GPS, Juvenile Crossover Program, JDAI, Gang FFT, Human Trafficking and the Juvenile Gun Violence Task Force. She is an Officer of the Clifford Scott Green Chapter of the NBA Judicial Council, a graduate of the PA Juvenile Justice Academy and is a Georgetown University Juvenile Justice Fellow.

She is currently the Co-Chair of the Philadelphia Steering Committee Collaborative against Human Trafficking.

Judge Dumas also provides a Legal Education as a Guest Lecturer, Panelist and Instructor at several Forums and Colleges and Universities in the Philadelphia area.

Purpose: Human trafficking is a dramatic criminal activity on the rise throughout the world, whose presence locally in the Philadelphia region has only recently gained media attention. This workshop will present an overview of this complex issue, giving education and awareness regarding the issue of Human Trafficking in Pennsylvania. Special attention will be given to the need for a coordinated response across legal, mental health, and school agencies.

Objectives: As a result of this interactive workshop, participants will be able to:

- Learn key indicators of suspected human trafficking cases in schools
- Understand components of the necessary coordinated response to suspected trafficking cases, within the Philadelphia community
- Learn of available services for victims of human trafficking
