To Whom It May Concern:

As a former supervisor, it is with pleasure I write a letter of reference for Ms. Sarah Yacucci . I have known Sarah for several years as Program Director in an Early Childhood Education setting. When Sarah came to us, she did not have a tremendous amount of experience working with young children. Her enthusiasm and willingness to learn made her a wonderful addition to the classroom. She embraced various assignments. Although Sarah was a little reluctant initially to work with the very young children, one and two years old, she quickly "fell in love."

Sarah has a drive, a spark, something that indicated she would excel. I found her delightful, interesting, dependable, able to learn new ideas quickly, a team player, flexible, reliable and most importantly the families and children LOVED her. Sarah shared her athletic talents and kept the children moving and active, a necessary thing with little ones. In many ways, throughout the time she spent with me, Sarah had proven to be a very valuable team member. Ms. Yacucci will be an asset to any team she joins. She is a talented individual with a great deal to offer.

If I can be of further assistance, please feel free to contact me. Bobbib0301@aol.com
