To whom it may concern:

It is with great interest that I submit this letter as an application for the position of Family Support Specialist/Counselor at CORA Services.

This position is of great interest to me because my long term professional goal is to provide intensive individual and family-based counseling services.

I hold a master's degree in Professional Counseling and an M.S.Ed in Counseling and Mental Health Services from the University of Pennsylvania Graduate School of Education. I have also successfully completed the National Counselors Examination (NCE) and will be working towards my licensure.

Through my clinical experience working at University of the Arts Counseling Centre and Youth Build Charter School I have been able to develop as well as strengthen my work ethic, motivation and enthusiasm while providing individual clinical services to such emerging adult and at-risk populations. My curiosity and admiration for working with individuals in the context of building a strong family structure stems from clinical experiences working in Nigeria.

CORA Services approach for improving resiliency and recovery in families through provision of mental health treatment, intensive prevention services, workshops/training and psychological services is a similar philosophy I hold myself.

I am elated at the prospects of being able to pursue professional development and personal growth while contributing as well as learning from this establishment. I look forward to discussing how I can contribute my skills, interests and goals for the field of mental health with you. I appreciate your taking the time to review my credentials and experience.

Sincerely,

Paula Bamgbose-Martins, M.S.Ed, M.Phil
