Dear CORA Services,

My name is Blaire Janney, OTR/L and I saw your clinic on indeed.com when searching for Occupational Therapists jobs. After careful review of the position, I submit my cover letter and resume to CORA Services with confidence that my qualifications and skills are well suited for this position. As an individual who is passionate about helping others, my goal is to utilize the skills I learned while on clinical and at Ithaca College to serve the patients at this clinic.

As indicated in my resume, my Level II fieldwork in pediatrics was at the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. Similar to the vision of CORA Services, CHOP bases all their client interactions on how the therapist can do their best for the client. During my time at CHOP, I had the opportunity to design and implement treatment plans I created with great success. I also spent the majority of my time there working with and researching children with Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy. The work I completed with these children and the interactions I had with many of them gave me an understanding of the responsibility I have towards increasing every client's quality of life.

Unlike many accredited occupational therapy programs, Ithaca College mandated that their students take an additional, two-month Level II fieldwork to graduate. I spent these two months in Tennessee at Dynamic Therapy Center. While in this outpatient setting I was able to learn more about giving to those less fortunate to myself. In this area of Tennessee I was in, there was a wide variety of not only disabilities, but also socioeconomic status. I had to be conscious of the family's needs as well as the child's in order to properly and effectively improve their quality of life. It was my strong communication skills and empathic nature that allowed me to excel at this clinic.

While my experience as an occupational therapist is much less than most individuals applying for this job, I can promise I will work hard to prove myself every day. I am extremely excited to work for this company and I believe that my skills, abilities, and dedication to help others can benefit this clinic immensely. I look forward to hearing from you soon. Please do not hesitate to contact me via email at bjanney1@ithaca.com or by cell phone at (609) 707-9831 if you have any questions regarding my resume or application. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely yours,

Blaire Janney, OTR/L
