CORA Conference Center

Presenter:

David Fialko, B.S., is an Internationally Certified Prevention Specialist as a well as a Certified Tobacco Treatment Specialist who works for The Council of Southeast PA, Inc., where he has worked for the past 9 years. David's passion is encouraging and assisting people & communities to attain health, well-being and happiness while overcoming adversities such as substance misuse/abuse or mental health disorders. He has over 16 years experience working in the Mental Health & Drug and Alcohol fields as an adventure based counselor, educator, intensive outpatient counselor, tobacco treatment specialist, commissioned FDA officer and prevention specialist. David speaks regularly throughout Pennsylvania and New Jersey on topics related to health and substance use/abuse.

Purpose:

To explore current drug/alcohol trends including new ways to use/abuse alcohol, forms of opiate use amongst adolescents, vaping cannabis products and other emerging substances. These trends are impacting ages as young as 12 years old up through the elderly.

Intended Audience:

This program will benefit Psychologists, Social Workers, Mental Health Counselors, Educators, Principals, Teachers, Graduate Students, and other practitioners within mental health and education who provide direct services and/or parent/teacher consultation for this population.

Cost of Program - $80.00

Objectives:

As a result of this interactive workshop, participants will be able to:

- Identify what drugs are commonly used/abused across the ages
- Increase knowledge of potential for addiction for identified drugs
- Become familiar with how accessible drugs are across the age groups & socioeconomic settings
- Participants will gain better understanding of “vaping & cross utilization of other drugs in devices”
- Participants will have the opportunity to discuss current movement towards full “legalization of cannabis”
- Correlation between low perceived level of harm of substances of abuse, and use of those substances. (i.e. current legalization of cannabis, RX meds)
