

REBECCA ADLEBERG

330 Cambridge St, Philadelphia PA 19123 ° (410) 370 6521 ° RL.Adleberg@gmail.com

EDUCATION

Temple University; Masters of Education in Counseling Psychology.

Towson University; Bachelor of Science, with Honors in Psychology. Honors Thesis in Forensic Psychology. Bachelors of Fine Arts in Acting (Theatre Arts). Thesis in Creative Arts Therapy.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Freire Charter Middle School

August 2019 - Present

Family Therapy Graduate Intern

- Provided 1:1 therapy, as well as creative art modalities for the entire middle school population to promote social/emotional learning. Developed art therapy techniques that have been implemented on 23 total kids.

Juvenile Justice Center of Philadelphia

January 2019 - May 2019

Graduate Level Practicum Student

- Providing 1:1 therapy, as well as group counseling
- Facilitating intakes and treatment planning

Towson University Counseling Center

August 2013 - June 2016

Sexual Assault Peer Educator, Head of Outreach

- Worked to develop programming on sexual assault prevention tactics for the undergraduate student population. Became the leading resource for fraternities, increased mandatory Greek Life meetings by 100%.
- Contacted outside organizations for donations of supplies and resources, as well as coordinating speakers to be used for programming. Increased engagement at presentations by 68% with a $0 budget.

International Rescue Committee

May 2015 - September 2015

Case Worker Intern: Refugee Resettlement and Human Trafficking

- Prepared pre-arrival paperwork for new refugees as well as filing all necessary government paperwork to ensure easy transition at arrival. Supported 22 new cases throughout the summer relocating 36 new refugees.
- Advocating for refugees at outside appointments, and forwarding them to necessary services. Ensured care for 100% of cases.

Vaccaro's Italian Pastry Shop and Cafe

August 2012 - August 2015

Assistant Manager

- Was responsible for 100% of new employee training as well as seasonal hiring.
- Other responsibilities included serving customers, closing and opening the store, paperwork, maintaining the register and keeping stock of inventory.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

Temple University Student Mentor

August 2019-Present

- Helping 3 first year students navigate the initial challenges of graduate school in order to reduce stress and anxiety. Secured a 100% success rate for internship placement.

Camp Sun Sibs, Johns Hopkins Pediatric Oncology

August 2018-Present

Counselor and Planning Committee Member

- Responsible for programming of 3-day weekend camp for siblings of pediatric cancer patients. During the year; Responsible for development of programming and allocating funding for camps. Successfully stayed under the $500 budget for supplies using donations and funding.

Johns Hopkins Pediatric Oncology: Camp Sunrise

June 2014-Present

Head Counselor

- Responsible for 24 pediatric cancer patients (ages 14-16) 24/7 for full week in summer at a therapeutic sleepaway camp.
- Implemented behavioral training for counselors in order to provide de-escalation techniques, as well as helping with homesickness.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

New York University; NYU Steinhardt Literacy Lab

January 2019-April 2019

Research Assistant

- Traveled to 5 different Philadelphia Public Schools in order to facilitate literacy assessments for 75 total children.
- Tracked data from all assessments

Temple University

December 2017-March 2018

Research Assistant

- Dissertation of PhD Candidate Anastasia Sorokina.
- Transcribed 15 total hour long sessions and coded for several different elements.

Towson University

June 2016

Undergraduate Honors Thesis: Principal Investigator; Supervised by Dr. Jeff Kukucka.

“Pants on Fire: Does Watching Lie to Me Affect Viewers’ Ability to Detect Lies”

Towson University

June 2016

Undergraduate Thesis: Principal Investigator; Supervised by Dr. David White.

“Annie Put Down Your Gun: Musical Theatre Therapy with Incarcerated Criminals”

Towson University: Title IX Office

August 2013 - June 2016

Research Assistant

“Rape Myth Acceptance Belief in Adult Males” (research ongoing)

PUBLICATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS

Springer Publications: Practical Case Studies Work Text for Counselors: Applying Decision Making Models.

Contributing Author; Publication Spring 2020

Eastern Psychological Association Conference Presentation;

March 2017

Pants on Fire: Does Watching Lie to Me Affect Viewers’ Ability to Detect Lies

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Temple University; Graduate Counseling Program

August 2019-December 2019

Teaching Assistant (Non-Union): Graduate Level Course: Fundamental Counseling Techniques

- Created Microsoft Power Points using developed lesson plans, in order to provide lectures for a total of 5 classes to 16 students.

SKILLS

Team player, strong interpersonal skills, ability to multitask, proficient in the entire Microsoft suite as well as SPSS.