To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great pleasure that I find myself writing this letter of recommendation for Amy Dogas. I found Amy to be consistently dedicated with a very even temperament. Her interpersonal skills are exemplary and were appreciated by everyone who worked with her.

I found Amy to be very soft spoken, and her soft, gentle way commanded the full attention of the employees. As Edens Corporation Human Resource Manager, overseeing over 600 employees at one time, you could understand how she would have to wear many hats. She was extremely instrumental in helping us develop the contract testing, employee handbooks, general training and orientation modules and presentations for our newly hired employees and applicants.

During reinstruction of employees, Amy had proven that she can inspire and motivate those employees. The type of businesses that Edens Corporation oversees has a turn-over rate that could sometimes be quite high; so Amy had her recruitment skills kick in high gear, as she attended many job fairs and conducted her own job fairs on site. Her excellent managerial and decision making processes helped Edens Corporation succeed in many of the contracts that we are involved in.

In closing, I am confident that Amy will surpass your expectations as she is driven, self-confident and proactive. I highly recommend Amy for employment. She is a team player and would make a great asset to any organization. Please feel free to contact me at 215-625-0314 or at Ldoyle@edenscorporation.com with any questions.

Sincerely,

Lynn A. Doyle
