

Eleanor G. Starzmann, M.S.Ed., NCSP, M.A.M.E.
13032 Sewell Road, Philadelphia, PA 19116
215-677-9019
Estarzmann13032@comcast.net

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

My objective is to maintain professional ethics while utilizing my school psychologist skills that will be of benefit to the student, the School District, the parents, and myself. I am a hard worker, organized, adhere to professional ethics, and able to complete required tasks without supervision.

SKILLS AND COMPETENCIES

| | |
|---|---|
| Trained as a school psychologist in assessments | Team player |
| Organized skills | 13 years' experience as school psychologist |
| Able to make a diagnosis | 29 years as a school counselor and teacher |

EDUCATION

| | | |
|------------------------|------|---------------------------------------|
| Holy Family University | 1994 | M.S. – Kindergarten to Adult Literacy |
| Rider University | 1998 | M.A. Health and Human Services |
| New Jersey University | 1976 | MSed. Special Education |
| Immaculata University | 1996 | Enrichment Program/School Psychology |
| Arcadia University | 1997 | Enrichment Program/School Counselor |

CERTIFICATIONS

| | | | |
|------|------------------------------------|------|-----------------------------|
| 1978 | Comprehensive Social Studies | 1986 | Elementary Principal |
| 1978 | Socially and Emotionally Disturbed | 1994 | Reading Specialist |
| 1978 | Mentally Retarded | 1996 | Elementary School Counselor |
| 1984 | Supervisor Special Education | 1996 | Secondary School Counselor |
| | | 2001 | School Psychologist |

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PHILADELPHIA, NORTHEAST REGIONAL OFFICE

School Psychologist (2003 to 2013)

Assessment activities, member of Evaluation Team, consultations, and provided IEP development for the children at Decatur School, Hancock School, NE Region, and Early Intervention supportive services.

SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PHILADELPHIA, EAST AREA ACADEMIC OFFICE

School Psychologist (2000 to 2003)

Assessment activities, member of Evaluation Team, developed interventions and provided IEP development for children at the Hopkinson and Smedley Schools.

SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PHILADELPHIA, FRANKFORD CLUSTER OFFICE

School Psychologist (2000 TO 2001)

Provided assessment, conducted interviews, consultations, member of IEP Team and provided IEP development for students.

SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PHILADELPHIA, ALLEN M. STEARNE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Counselor (1997 to 2000)

Parent involvement activities. Conflict resolution, peer mediation activities, member of multi-disciplinary team, principal's designee for dealing with Special Education students.

SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PHILADELPHIA, THOMAS CREIGHTON ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Counselor (1993 TO 1997)

Implement broad-based programs which deal with decision making skills, peer mediation conflict resolution, self-esteem, positive attitudes, goal setting techniques and coping strategies. Principal's designee for dealing with Special Education students. Member of Multi-disciplinary Team. Member of Instructional Support Team (IST). Career preparation. High School decision making for 8th grade students.

SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PHILADELPHIA, BENJAMIN RUSH MIDDLE SCHOOL

Self contained Learning Support Teacher/Senior Career Teacher (1989 to 1993)

Provide small direct group instructions to students classified as learning disabled. Consult with parents concerning academic and program integration of students.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

1. American Psychological Association - Associate Member
2. Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development
3. Phi Delta Kappa
4. Kappa Delta Ph – An International Honor Society in Education
5. National Association of School Psychology

AWARDS

Awarded William C. Jacobs Scholarship for Special Education, 1986-1988, 1991.

REFERENCES AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST.