

1239 S 47TH STREET FL #3
PHILADELPHIA, PA 19143
(818) 472-0474
JLECLERC@WIDENER.EDU

JAMIE LECLERC • [SHE/THEY]

OBJECTIVE

To obtain a position that will utilize my strong communication and collaborative skills, awareness and dedication to social justice issues, and that will allow me to promote equity and accessibility in health and education rights services.

EXPERIENCE

Interdisciplinary Sexuality Research Collaborative, Philadelphia – ‘Making Healthy Decisions’ Program Facilitator

NOVEMBER 2018 – PRESENT

- Implements sexuality, reproductive health, and nutrition education programs with community members focused on pregnancy prevention, abstinence, healthy relationships, consent, STI prevention (including PrEP and PEP), nutritional self-sufficiency skills, communication skills, and sexuality.
- Facilitate evidence-based health education curricula workshops for area youth attending public school and other community based organizations.
- Educate, engage, and empower young people to recognize their importance and connectedness to their community.
- Collects basic demographic data from participants of health education programming and inputs data in a timely manner into internal databases.
- Maintains good working relationships with community leaders, school faculty, and program faculty.

Strength United, Van Nuys – Prevention Educator and Community Outreach Specialist, formerly Hotline Advocate

JUNE 2015 – MARCH 2018

- Presenting various presentations to schools, community groups, etc on subjects such as human trafficking, domestic violence, teen dating violence, healthy relationships and gender equity, and many more
 - Tabling fundraising and outreach events, spreading information about services offered through Strength United.
 - Developing new and relevant presentations on topics affecting the community.
-

Center for Positive Sexuality, Van Nuys – Lead Educator

NOVEMBER 2017 – PRESENT

- Promoting the mission of positive sexuality through engaging presentations
- Presenting and/or paneling on presentations including BDSM: Fact and Fiction, Non-Monogamy, Body Image, Sexuality & Disability, Sexuality & aging, The Gender Spectrum, and Sexual Diversity.
- Developing educational modules for the center's upcoming Positive Sexuality Professional Certification program

Child Care, Los Angeles – Child Care Provider/Household Manager

SEPTEMBER 2010 – PRESENT

- Provide safe, fun, and engaging child care, with creative and imaginative play
- Promote children's emotional and social development, understanding of others, and themselves, address behavioral and developmental concerns with parents
- Prepare meals and snacks, handle household responsibilities such as grocery shopping, laundry and housekeeping
- Help children with homework, research, chores, and staying on task
- Create culturally enriching activities and memorable experiences for children

EDUCATION

Widener University, Chester – Candidate for Masters of Education in Human Sexuality

SEPTEMBER 2017 – ANTICIPATED MAY 2019, CENTER FOR HUMAN SEXUALITY STUDIES

California State University, Northridge – Bachelor of Arts in Psychology with a Minor in Human Sexuality

AUGUST 2014 – AUGUST 2016

Course Highlights: Cross Cultural Psychology, Personality Theories, Sociology of Deviant Behavior, Critical Concepts in Human Sexuality, Family and Marriage Relations, Counseling and Interviewing, Clinical Psychology, Sociology of Sex & Gender, Anthropology of Sex & Gender

GPA 3.45

AWARDS & RECOGNITIONS

- Full Time Dean's List Honor - Fall 2015 (CSU - Northridge)
- Inducted into Psi-Chi International Psychology Honor Society
- Full Time Dean's List Honor - Spring 2014 (Moorpark College)
- Operation 365 Blog Spotlight 2011:
- <http://operation-365.org/2011/11/20/365-day-72-its-all-thumbs-up>

CERTIFICATIONS

Certified CALEMA Sexual Assault Advocate, QPR Suicide Prevention Gatekeeper

SKILLS

Crisis Intervention, Suicide Prevention, Time Management, Public Speaking, Community Outreach & Education, Content Creation, Social Media Marketing/Outreach, Research & Data Entry

