

Hannah A. Nieberding

Soon-to-be college graduate with experience in community outreach, research, and management seeking a career in social work, family counseling, community organizing, and/or service in the public and non-profit spheres.

4633 Old Oak Road
Doylestown, PA 18902
(267) 885- 9315
niebeha0@sewanee.edu

EDUCATION

University of the South: Sewanee, Sewanee TN— Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology

August 2015 - May 2019

IPSL Colombia : Post Conflict Studies, Medellin Colombia

Spring Semester 2018

Central Bucks High School East, Bucks County PA

August 2012 - June 2015.

EXPERIENCE

Research Assistant Sewanee TN — University Employee

August 2015 - PRESENT

- Community Engagement Office Fall 2015- Fall 2016
 - assisted Bonner Leadership Program
 - assisted VISTA Program
 - exposure to grant proposals and community organizing
- Archaeology Lab Fall 2017-Spring 2018
 - helped produce data for University formal presentation of Rebel's Rest excavation - presented by University Archaeologists to the Board of Regents and Administrators in Spring 2018
- Anthropology Department Fall 2018-PRESENT
 - editing papers and book chapters collected from scientists around the globe with the intent of publishing
 - collecting material for professors' research and class material

Shenanigans Restaurant, Sewanee TN— Manager

March 2017 - Present

- responsible for 25 hours a week of day managing, night managing, cashier, bartending, and food preparation shifts
- skills in scheduling, cash handling, ordering, hiring, training
- experience in marketing and event planning

Notable Project

I studied abroad in Medellin Colombia in the spring of 2018 with IPSL, where I conducted thesis research with local nonprofit Bien Humano. The intent was to provide an ethnographic study of UTRASD - the Union of Afro-Colombian Domestic Workers -as a means to better understand their needs as a community and to direct future projects in family services and educational access.

Volunteer and Community

Blue Monarch volunteer and fundraiser

Grundy County School District volunteer educator and after school counselor

Women's Center Auxiliary Board

Theta Pi Sorority

Housing Sewanee volunteer

Relay for Life volunteer

