To whom it may concern,

As a highly motivated and dedicated student with a knack for working with children, I would like to apply for the position of an Early Years Summer Camp Counselor. For the past two years, I have been volunteering at an In-Home Daycare Service in Northeast Philadelphia. As part of my experience I have learned a great deal of patience for children. I was working with children as young as one and as old as five. The best part of my experience there was having the opportunity to build a relationship with each child and being able to watch them grow.

I just completed my first year at Temple University and changed my major to Early Childhood Education not too long ago. Throughout this past year I've been able to enhance my organizational skills as well as my time management skills. Although these are valuable skills to have, I'm prepared to take on the task of being a fun leader. I would very much appreciate the opportunity to demonstrate my capabilities to you in person. I believe that I have a lot to offer as a camp counselor. I look forward to discussing my application with you at an interview. I can be contacted at all times on the details provided above.

Sincerely,

Jaqueline Hoffman
