

EVE HAVIVI

(213) 550-6554 — evehavivi@gmail.com
Philadelphia, PA

EDUCATION

Bryn Mawr College Graduate School of Social Work and Social Research: Bryn Mawr, PA

- Master of Social Service (MSW Equivalent), Clinical Concentration
- Fellow, Center for Child and Family Well-Being

Expected May 2020

Pitzer College: Claremont, CA

- Bachelor of Arts in Multiculturalism and Education, GPA: 3.7
- Honors Thesis: The Nature of Teacher-Student Relationships in a High Risk Environment

Fall 2010-Spring 2014

WORK EXPERIENCE

Drexel University, Center for Hunger-Free Communities: Philadelphia, PA

Program Development and Clinical Social Work Intern

Fall 2018-Present

- Collaborate and strategize with clients and organizations to envision a program model focused on leadership development, peer support, and local advocacy
- Conduct focus groups with clients and synthesize results
- Use trauma-informed approach to coach and counsel women on goal-setting
- Facilitate monthly trauma-informed peer support group with women

Ikar Early Childhood Center: Los Angeles, CA

Teacher

Fall 2017-Summer 2018

- Supervised and engaged children of multiple ages throughout daily routine at a Jewish and Reggio Emilia-inspired preschool
- Worked with other staff to solidify and implement behavioral intervention plans for students as needed
- Wrote and taught weekly hands-on lessons for Kindergarteners, focusing on holidays, liturgy and texts, and Hebrew

Camp Ramah in California: Ojai, CA

Leadership Mentor and Educator

Summer 2017

- Planned and facilitated group processing sessions at a Jewish sleep-away camp, focusing on identity, community, and leadership for 15 11th graders
- Supervised Counselor-in-Training days for campers and debriefed their experiences in order to promote problem-solving, leadership skills, and competence in child development and behavioral intervention
- Worked with staff to improve programs, facilitating leadership and personal development among campers

Hand in Hand Center for Jewish-Arab Education: Jerusalem, Israel

Tutor

Fall 2016-Spring 2017

- Created and taught English lessons for individuals and small groups in elementary grades at a mixed Israeli-Palestinian school
- Developed and executed therapeutic Hebrew programming in one-on-one and group settings, promoting social skills, goal-oriented thinking, and impulse control
- Utilized cultural competence and sensitivity to promote an environment of intercultural understanding

Seneca Family of Agencies: Oakland, CA

Mental Health Counselor

Summer 2015-Spring 2016

- Used therapeutic interventions to provide daily academic and mental health support to Kindergarten and 1st grade students with emotional and behavioral struggles due to trauma experiences
- Developed and initiated individual treatment plans with other staff
- Wrote daily mental health notes to chronicle students' progress in meeting their behavioral goals

City Year San Jose/Silicon Valley: San Jose, CA

Americorps Member

Summer 2014-Summer 2015

- Coordinated events to enhance school community engagement
- Devised and taught daily academic lessons and extracurricular clubs for low-income middle school students
- Prepared and conducted daily literacy tutoring sessions for students below grade level

Garey High School: Pomona, CA

Project Coordinator

Fall 2013-Spring 2014

- Created and implemented skills-training curriculum for peer counseling program at an urban high school to impart active listening skills and competence needed to address typical teenage issues
- Provided ongoing support to 45 peer counselors by observing counseling sessions and giving feedback bi-weekly

Prototypes Women Center: Pomona, CA

Tutoring Coordinator and Group Facilitator

Fall 2013-Spring 2014

- Managed tutoring program for clients at a drug rehabilitation center by organizing materials, training, and supervising 5 tutors
- Facilitated weekly knitting group for incarcerated women to enable group processing and reach therapeutic goals

University of California Los Angeles: Los Angeles, CA

Research Assistant

Winter 2013

- Conducted online database research to create a developmental psychology course based on civic engagement in a culturally and socioeconomically diverse community
-

ACHIEVEMENTS

Achvat Amim/Solidarity of Nations: Jerusalem, Israel

Fellow

Fall 2016-Winter 2017

- Participated in a five-month service learning program exploring Israeli social issues
- Worked full-time at education-focused organizations connecting Israeli and Palestinian communities
- Participated in weekly experiential learning workshops covering Israeli and Palestinian society and conflicts

IKAR Grant, Camp Ramah in California: Ojai, California

Grant Recipient

Summer 2011

- Received one of two $2,000 grants to initiate an anti-bullying initiative at a summer camp, including activities tailored for differently aged campers and a camp-wide video project raising awareness about bullying
-

SKILLS

Proficient in Hebrew, academic database research, socio-emotional and academic skills-training, group facilitation, academic and socio-emotional lesson-planning