

MEGAN PALMER

4825 Meyer Court, Bethlehem, PA 18020 • (484) 895-5252 • tug39855@temple.edu

Professional Summary

Current student getting my BA in speech-language-hearing looking to broaden my work experiences in communication sciences and disorders for future graduate school experience

Skills

- Leadership experience,
- Planning activities,
- Time management and organizational skills
- Basic American Sign Language Skills

Work History & Extracurricular Experience

Executive Board Member of NSSLHA, 09/2018 to Current NSSLHA

- STARS Coordinator
- Help plan community fundraisers
- Coordinate event attendance of other executive board members
- Attend events related to major

Camp Counselor, 06/2017 to Current

Horizons For Youth – Bethlehem, United States

- Planned daily activities for campers
- Organized and ran 15+ weekly camp field trips
- Supervised on average 20 children daily
- Coordinated with parents about payments and special needs

Chinatown Field Project, 01/2019 to 05/2019

Temple University – Philadelphia, PA

- Learned about Autism Spectrum Disorder in
- Learned about Asian immigrant community in Philadelphia
- Planned activities for a group of children with ASD with other students
- Visited a child with ASD weekly
- Assisted parents with understanding therapy techniques and plans

Member of Phi Sigma Sigma, 03/2017 to Current

Phi Sigma Sigma

- Nominating Committee, Fall 2018
- Judicial Board, Fall 2017
- Participate in 10+ philanthropy events per year

Hootathon Committee Member, 04/2017 to 03/2018

Hootathon

- Personally fundraised $400 for Hootathon
- Spread Awareness about CHOP
- Recruited dancers for Hootathon

Education

Bachelor of Arts: Speech Language Hearing Sciences , 2020

Temple University - Philadelphia, PA