Hot Topics in Ethics:
Applying Positive Ethics to Therapeutic Practice, Consultation and Intervention
September 13, 2019
9:00 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.

Presenter:

Linda K. Knauss, Ph.D., ABPP is a Professor at Widener University's Institute for Graduate Clinical Psychology. She has served as the Chair of the Ethics Committees of the American Board of Professional Psychology, the American Psychological Association, and the Pennsylvania Psychological Association and as Co-chair of the Philadelphia Society of Clinical Psychologists' Ethics Committee. Dr. Knauss has authored several book chapters and journal articles on ethics and has taught ethics at many local universities as well as continuing education workshops on a variety of topics in ethics. She also maintains a private practice where she sees children, adolescents, adults and families.

Purpose:

This is a vignette-based workshop focusing on the issues that generate the most questions to local, state, and national ethics committees. In addition to boundary issues and confidentiality, topics include end of life issues, supervision, multicultural competence, addiction, and internet dilemmas. The vignettes are designed to promote discussion. This workshop will involve participants in the application of ethical decision making to the practice of professional psychology. Participants are invited to discuss ethical dilemmas from their own practices.

Objectives: As a result of this interactive workshop, participants will be able to:

- Identify the relevant ethical principles related to a variety of ethical dilemmas
- Apply positive ethics to therapeutic practice
- Improve ethical decision making skills

Schedule:

8:30 Registration
